

Jaume Farrerons

Jaume Farrerons (Barcelona, 1961) was Secretary General and ideologist of Platform Rep Catalonia (PxC), a party Populist founded by Josep Anglada on 2002 . In 2003, Farrerons left the formation denouncing its bonds with Extreme right, that in their opinion harmed the resolutions of the original congress. Later, Farrerons tried to promote an alternative organization of lefts, without success. Philosophy is licensed in and civil servant of Majority of Catalonia .

On 1996 founded Associació Catalan Democràtica of Funcionaris de Presons (ADECAF), organization author of numerous information on bad treatments to prisoners and harassment labor corporative to civil service denouncers of legal infringements, recognized by University of Barcelona and Amnesty International . The controversies with the penitentiary unions have been habitual, arriving even at the courts.

Previously, according to states the historian Xavier Casals, Farrerons had promoted the cultural association ENSPO (1983 - 1989), of antiracist ideology and catalanista radical but " nothing antiespañolista". This organization, of cuts rather philosophical, exerted however influence not at all despicable in certain sectors atypical of extreme right and of extreme left Catalan, like Alternative European (of that she was the author of the programmatic declaration), Platform the New Europe (jointly founded with ex- troskysta Joan Colomar) and Republican Social Movement (MSR). Also militated in Convergència Democràtica de Catalonia (CDC), where it promoted and it directed to the penitentiary work group until the year 1998 . Farrerons never has hidden its catalanism.

Between 2006 and 2007, Farrerons was member of Divided to National Republican (PNR), very minority organization of Spanish nationalistic ideology and lefts led by Joan Colomar Albajar, historical founder of Revolutionary Communist Liga (LCR). In the last municipal elections, Farrerons proposed the presentation in Vic of a candidacy of lefts, alternative to the one of Josep Anglada, who did not arrive rennet bag.

At present, Jaume Farrerons is provincial secretary of the union Clean Hands and secretary of formation, studies and programs of Partit Rep Catalonia (PxCat), split of Platform Rep Catalonia constituted by ex-opposite members of this party to the extreme right-wing ideology of Josep Anglada but also critics with the present policy of Immigration .

In October of 2007, within the frame of Diploma of Advanced Studies (DEA), Farrerons presented/displayed before the Faculty of Philosophy of University of Barcelona the work of investigation " Truth and death. Philosophy against cosmovisión in the first Heidegger (1919-1929) ", that was described by the academic court registered in honor.

http://www.myetymology.com/encyclopedia/Jaume_Farrerons.html